Benjamín Solari Parravicini - Visionary Artist and Psychic

Benjamín Solari Parravicini (August 8, 1898 – December 13, 1974) was an Argentine visual artist renowned for his remarkable psychic abilities to predict future events. His alleged foresight included the launch of Sputnik 2, the advent of television, the development of artificial insemination, the September 11th terrorist attacks, the 1956 Suez Crisis, the Cuban Revolution, and the rise of Fidel Castro, among many other significant historical events.

Biography

Born on August 8, 1898, in Buenos Aires, Benjamín Solari Parravicini was the eldest of eight siblings. He was affectionately nicknamed "Pelón" due to his baldness. His parents, Benjamín Tomás Solari and Dolores Parravicini Noriera, nurtured his artistic talents from a young age.

Parravicini dedicated his life to painting and enjoyed a successful career. In 1927, during an art exhibition in Buenos Aires, he was congratulated by the then President of Argentina, Marcelo Torcuato de Alvear. He later received accolades at an international art display in the capital city and was invited to exhibit in Liège, Belgium, where he won a gold medal and impressed King Albert I, who purchased one of his works.

In addition to his painting career, Parravicini was an art professor at the Spanish Lyceum of Buenos Aires. The city municipality appointed him as the manager of the Arts Department and the director of the exhibition gallery, roles he fulfilled for several years.

Artistic Works and Exhibitions

Parravicini's exhibitions showcased his artistic prowess and creativity:

- 1927 – Exposición Comunal (communal exposition)
- 1929 – Amigos del Arte (Friends of Art)
- 1935 – Camuati
- 1947 – Asociación para la Promoción de las Artes (Association for the Promotion of Arts)

Paranormal Abilities

Throughout his childhood, Parravicini claimed to have contact with fairies, angels, and duendes (mythological creatures similar to goblins). He was reputedly able to find lost objects and people with ease, which concerned his father, a psychiatrist. Despite numerous medical tests, no illness was found. One of Parravicini's early premonitions was a "war that would go off in '14," predicting the outbreak of World War I.

Between 1936 and 1972, Parravicini created over a thousand "prophetic" drawings, known as "psychographies." His supporters believe these accurately predicted major world events, such as the arrival of television, satellite communication, in vitro fertilization, and the September 11 attacks. One notable drawing from 1939 depicted the Statue of Liberty with buildings collapsing in the background, accompanied by a message stating, "The freedom of North America will lose its light. Its torch won't illuminate like yesterday, and the monument will be attacked two times."

Parravicini claimed that due to his Catholic beliefs, he initially destroyed many drawings that did not make sense to him. He described feeling his hand being guided by an external entity, which he believed was his guardian angel, José Fray de Aragón, and hearing a voice during the drawing process.

Alien Abduction

According to ufologist Fabio Zerpa, a close friend of Parravicini, the artist experienced an alien abduction. He recounted being approached by two whitish-eyed beings, similar to what would later be known as Nordic aliens, while sitting on a sidewalk bench on the 9 de Julio Avenue in Buenos Aires. A bright light transported them to a circular room with luminous panels and a central tube. One entity telepathically told him, "You have to preach love. The universe is harmony. Your behavior is aggressive. We have several chosen ones. We will meet again." Parravicini returned to the same bench three hours later, at 6:40 PM.

Benjamín Solari Parravicini's life and works continue to fascinate many, blurring the lines between artistic genius and prophetic vision. His legacy endures as both a celebrated artist and a figure of mystical intrigue.

abstract figures in the drawing. The arrival of "Kropp" hints at the influence of a new or powerful force during this time of upheaval.

Possible Interpretation of the KROPP

Benjamin Solari Parravicini (BSP) indicated the end times would be marked by the appearance of a mysterious figure named KROPP. This name may refer to a prominent German industrial family, the founders of ThyssenKrupp. Friedrich Krupp (1787-1826) and his successor Alfred (1812-87) were key figures. During World War II, Krupp family members were arrested and tried as war criminals for their collaboration with the Nazis.

Trump's grandfather, Friedrich Drumpf, was also a German emigrant industrialist. His ideologies, often perceived as extremist and racist, are reminiscent of the values associated with the Krupp family and German National Socialism. This interpretation suggests that Trump may represent the mysterious character KROPP.

Music and the Hathors in Ancient Egypt:

The Hathors were closely associated with music in ancient Egypt. Hathor, a major goddess in Egyptian mythology, was often depicted as a cow or a woman with cow ears and was considered the goddess of love, beauty, music, dance, fertility, and motherhood.

Hathor and Music:

1. Goddess of Music:

- Hathor was revered as the patroness of music and musicians. She was often shown playing the sistrum, a musical instrument associated with joy and festivity. The sistrum is a type of rattle used in religious ceremonies, particularly those dedicated to Hathor.

2. Symbolism of Joy and Celebration:

- Music and dance were integral to worshiping Hathor. Festivals in her honor included music, dancing, and singing. These activities were believed to please the goddess and ensure her favor and protection.

3. Role in Temples:

- Temples dedicated to Hathor often featured musicians and dancers as part of their ritual activities. These temples served as centers for musical training and performance.

4. Cultural Impact:

- Hathor's association with music extended beyond religious practices. She influenced the broader cultural appreciation of music and the arts in ancient Egyptian society.

Summary:

Hathor's deep connection to music underscores her importance in both religious and cultural contexts in ancient Egypt. Music, dance, and joyous celebrations were central to her worship and reflected her role as a goddess who embodied beauty, love, and creativity.

The Abduction of the Navigators by Ganymedes in Russia

"Los Navieros serán raptados por los Ganímedes en Rusia" B.S.P. 1938

"The Navigators will be abducted by the Ganymedes in Russia" B.S.P. 1938.

Potential Meaning: This passage could be interpreted as a prophecy of a significant event involving Russia. The "abduction" could symbolize a shift in power, influence, or knowledge. The involvement of "Ganymedes" might suggest extraterrestrial intervention or influence, or it could represent a transformative force or event. The "Navigators" could represent those in positions of leadership or influence, suggesting that this event could have significant political or societal implications.

There is a well-known incident often referred to as the "Lake Baikal Humanoids" or "The Baikal Divers Incident." In 1982, during a training dive in Lake Baikal, Soviet military divers reportedly encountered humanoid beings in silver suits at a depth of about 50 meters. According to the reports, when the divers tried to capture one of these beings, they were propelled to the surface by a powerful force, resulting in serious injuries due to decompression sickness. However, these reports are often associated with UFO and alien encounter stories, and there is no official confirmation or widely accepted scientific evidence to support these claims.

"Naviero de Ganimedes observa a la Tierra Ya" B.S.P. 1938

"The Navigator from Ganymede is already observing the Earth" B.S.P. 1938

Potential Meaning: This passage could be interpreted as a prophecy about extraterrestrial observation of Earth, suggesting that humanity or our planet is being watched or studied by entities from other parts of the universe. This could imply potential future contact or interaction, or it could symbolize the idea that our actions on Earth have broader, cosmic implications. The "Navigator from Ganymede" could also represent a more advanced or enlightened perspective, observing and potentially guiding humanity's progress.

"El Anfíbio de Ganímedes" B.S.P. 1938

"The Amphibian from Ganymede" B.S.P. 1938

Potential Meaning: This passage could be interpreted as a prophecy about the discovery of or contact with an extraterrestrial entity from Ganymede, specifically one with amphibian-like characteristics. This could suggest a life form capable of surviving in diverse environments, possibly even Earth's. Alternatively, the "amphibian" could symbolize a transformative or adaptable entity, capable of bridging different realms or perspectives. The passage might underscore the potential diversity of life in the universe and the possibilities for contact or understanding.

The discovery that Ganymede, Jupiter's largest moon, has a subsurface ocean was made by NASA's Galileo spacecraft in the mid-1990s. However, it wasn't until March 2015 that scientists, using the Hubble Space Telescope, were able to confirm that Ganymede indeed has a massive ocean beneath its icy surface. This ocean is believed to be 60 miles (100 kilometers) thick, which is 10 times deeper than Earth's oceans, and is buried under a 95-mile (150-kilometer) crust of mostly ice.

THE PROPHETIC CLOCK OF BENJAMIN SOLARIS PARRAVICINI

The Lost Civilization of Earth

La civilización terrena posee una civilización extraviada. Ella fue superior a las que le siguieron. El hombre de aquél entonces fue “adaptable” al gran calor terráqueo como al gran frío de origen. Él fue electromagnético, supo regirse por las altas matemáticas y ciencias astrales. Aún este hombre magnético mora el helado Plutón, pues como se dijo él es “adaptable”.

"Extraterrestrial satellite laboratories, where work is done for humanity. There, crops of germs harmful to the earth are cultivated to find ways to completely neutralize them. In these satellites, efforts are made to end the diseases that plague mankind, who has done much but made little progress in the face of the reality of other worlds, identical to this one. Nearby laboratory satellites that orbit around us, with beings skilled in all matters necessary for the proposal and equipped with precise sensory devices, will cleanse the atmosphere of toxins that populate it. This is another of the primary reasons they descended, as it is known to them the danger that the terrestrial suffers. Total death by asphyxiation! A short-term fact.

The Study of Human Races and Their Origins

No Drawing

"Gerontólogo: Profundiza el estudio del hombre en sus razas. Recuerda, aquellas fueron llegadas de diferentes planetas. Ellas bajaron a la Tierra en exploración y quedaron por mandato de colonizar zonas propicias a sus consistencias. Sin embargo el hombre es a toda vista un ser inadaptado el ambiente tomado. A él le daña y enferma el cambio de atmósfera y temperatura. No resiste el microbio, no tolera alimentación natural, envejece por ello. Gerontólogo: estudia y ayuda a las razas en su lucha. Un día será y será en el triunfo de la total raza. ¡Llega el 2000!" B.S.P. 1961
